VALUABLE FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned, Executrix of the Will of JAMES TOWNSEND, deceased, in accordance with said Will, offers at Private Sale the valuable Farm on which she now resides, belonging to the heirs of James Townsend, situated in Reading township, Adams county, Pa., about 1½ miles north of Hampton, 4 miles from York Sulphur Springs and ½ mile from the Baltimore and Carlisle pike, containing 201 ACRES, more or less. This is commonly know as the "Old Round Hill Farm." It is mostly of the granite soil, has been heavily limed and manured, and is in a high state of cultivation. There are about 160 Acres of good farming land, and 40 Acres of good timber. The farm is well watered with springs and running water; a never-failing spring of excellent water about 25 yards from the door; also, another very large and strong spring about ¼ mile from the house, from which the water runs to the house continually, forced by a hydraulic Ram, which has been in successful operation for over twenty years. There is a barrel of excellent water standing in the kitchen all the time, suitable for cooking or washing. From the house the water is carried by lead pipe to a trough in the barn yard, thus furnishing plenty of water all the time for all the stock. The buildings are a large two-story STONE DWELLING HOUSE, a good sized Stone Barn, a large framed Stable with stabling for 6 horses; Hay Mows, Straw Shed, &c., Wagon Shed, Grain House, Machine House, Shop, Smoke House, Spring House, Hog House, and other necessary buildings—all under pine shingle roof.—There is a No. 1 Apple Orchard in good bearing order; also, Peaches, Pears, Plums, Cherries, &c., in abundance. This desirable farm is very conveniently located in regard to Churches, School Houses, Stores, Grist Mills, Saw Mills, Blacksmith Shops, &c.

All persons desirous of purchasing such a farm are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. They will find it as represented.—Terms easy and reasonable. A portion of the money can remain in the farm, if desired. There is no widow's dower in it, and title will be made free from all incumbrance.

Some very fine specimens of Magnetic Iron Ore have been found on the farm.

Any person desiring further information, (if it is not convenient for them to call,) may obtain it by letter by addressing

Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys, or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—SECRET and solitary practices more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidentially rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS,
IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF POWER,
Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny, that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits, than by the prudent? Beside being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!

Persons Ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders, and their Deadly Poisons, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICTLAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emicated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN

who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and employments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, "from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or Unskillful PRETENDERS, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health, to sign over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr. JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most Inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most Speedy, Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all diseases of Imprudence.

☞No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.

There are so many Paltry, Designing and Worthless Impostors advertising themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his office.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this establishment, year after year, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

THE reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it.—Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, which excites a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on a favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or the other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of the disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also, in more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

THE BAREFOOT BOY.

BY J. G. WHITTIER.

Blessings on the little man,
Barefoot boy with cheeks of tan!
With thy upturned pantaloons,
And thy merry tunes—
With thy red lip, redder still,
Kissed by strawberries on the hill—
With the sunshine on thy face,
Through the torn brim's jaunty grace;
From my heart I give the joy—
I was once a barefoot boy.

Oh! for boyhood's painless play,
Sleep that wakes in laughing day,
Health that mocks the doctor's rules,
Knowledge never learned at schools—
Of the wild bee's morning chase,
Of the wild flower's time and place,
Flight of fowls and habitude
Of the tenants of the wood;
How the tortoise bears its shell,
How the robin feeds her young,
How the oriole's nest is hung,
Where the whitest lilies blow,
Where the freshest berries grow,
Where the wood-nut trails its vine,
Where the wood-grape clusters shine;
Of the black wasp's cunning way,
Mason of his wall of clay,
And the architectural plans
Of gray hornet artisans,
For eschewing books and tasks,
Nature answers all he asks;
Hand in hand with her he walks,
Face to face with her he talks,
Part and parcel of her joy—
Blessings on the barefoot boy!

Cheerily, then, my little man,
Live and laugh as boyhood can,
Though the flinty stones be hard,
Stubble-spread the new mown sward,
Every morn shall lead thee through
Fresh baptism of the dew;
Every evening from thy feet
Shall the cool wind kiss the heat;
And too soon those feet shall hide
In the prison-cells of pride,
Loose the freedom of the sod,
Like a colt for work be shod;
Made to tread the mills of toil;
Happy if thy tracks be found
Never on forbidden ground—
Happy if they sink not in
Quick and treacherous sands of sin.
Ah! that thou should know the joy
Ere it passes, barefoot boy!

TWO WAYS.

"There are your month's wages," said Mrs. Steele, tossing some bills into the lap of a young girl whom they employed in her kitchen; "and if I should do justice to myself, I should keep back full half of it. I hope next month, you will try and be a little more help to me—not move about so slowly as you are accustomed to, and take a little more pains in handling dishes.—Many housekeepers would have taken the price of that pitcher you cracked out of your wages, and I am not sure but I shall adopt some such plan in future."

The young girl took the money with a moody look, and went about her task with a heavy, resentful spirit. These hard words, she felt, were undeserved, as she tried to please by doing her work faithfully. But, all through the house, the system reigned. It was one continual scene of fault-finding from morning till night. No wonder that the angels of peace and happiness spread their white wings and fled away.

In a rose-wreathed cottage just over the way, it was also Bridget's pay day.

"Here are seven dollars, Bridget, and may they do you a great deal of good.—You are getting on nicely now, and learning very fast to do work in my way. Mr. Howard thought you had quite exceeded yourself in yesterday's bread and pies."

Bridget's face was all aglow with pleasure as she opened her hand to recive the money.

"Indeed, ma'am, it's all from patient teaching I've had. My last mistress called me a dolt and a blockhead, and I didn't much care for to please her. But, if you please, ma'am, I would like your advice on a little matter. Would you wait till I get money enough for a shany silk dress, or would yer just spend your mony now for what you needs?"

"By all means, get you a good, comfortable pair of shoes, Bridget; and I would advise a neat delaine dress. A cheap, poor silk, is not near as nice as a pretty fresh calico."

Then followed some excellent advice to the young girl, which was listened to with the deepest respect, and which gave her some new and valuable ideas on the subject of what was tasteful and becoming in dress. Little by little she moulded and wrought over the plastic mind into something far better than the early promise gave her reason to hope for. For five years, the young woman labored faithfully in the service of her kind employer, and only left her to enter a home of her own. How much better was she fitted for that position by the kind and judicious training of those five years! How much better, too, was Mrs. Mason served, than her neighbor, Mrs. Steele, who looked upon her help as only machines, out of which to get the greatest possible amount of labor.

It takes time and and long patience to do this, but it is part of the work, desponding house-mother, that God has given you to do.

"Do it so bravely, so kindly, so well,
Angels shall hasten the story to tell."
—Country Gentleman.

A COUPLE of the best conundrums we ever heard were perpetrated the other day in a social circle of gentleman, one of whom had a very bald head. One gentleman asked—

"Why is Mr.——'s head like Alaska?"

All gave it up.

"Because it is a great white bear place."

Hardly had the laugh subsided on this when another asked—

"Why is his head like heaven?

This was worse to get at than the other, and the answer came—

"Because there is no dyeing or parting there."

"PATRICK, the widow Malony tells me that you have stolen one of her finest pigs. Is that correct or not?"

"Yis, yer honor."

"What have you done with it?"

"Killed it and ate it, yer honor!"

"Oh, Patrick, Patrick! when you are brought face to face with the widow and her pig on the judgment day, what account will you be able to give of yourself when the widow accuses you of stealing?

"Did you say the pig would be there, yer riverence!"

"To be sure I did!"

"Well yer riverence, I'll say, Mrs. Malony, there's yer pig!"

A BREMEN despatch says that the North German Lloyds announce that in consequence of the success of the German arms, their steamers will be able to resume their trips to America, and a time table for their departure will soon be issued.

THE fence of a graveyard in Pennsylvania bears the inscription in large white letters "Use Jones' bottled ale if you want to keep out here!"

PROCLAMATION OF NEUTRALITY.

On Monday President Grant issued an important proclamation, declaring the neutrality of the United States in the European war. After reciting the provisions of the "Neutrality Law" of 1818, and the treaties with France and Prussia, the President says the statutes of the United States and the law of nations alike require that no person within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States shall take part, directly or indirectly, in the said war, but shall remain at peace with each of the said belligerents, and shall maintain a strict and impartial neutrality; and that whatever privileges shall be accorded to one belligerent within the port of the United States shall be, in like manner, accorded to the other. The proclamation concludes as follows: "And I hereby do warn all citizens of the United States, and all persons residing or being within their territory or jurisdiction, that while the free and full expression of sympathies, in public and private, is not restricted by the laws of the United States, military forces in aid of either belligerent cannot lawfully be originated or organized within their jurisdiction; and that while all persons may lawfully and without restriction, by reason of the aforesaid state of war, manufacture and sell within the United States, arms and munitions of war, and other articles, ordinarily known as "contraband of war," yet they cannot carry such articles upon the high seas for the use or service of either belligerent; nor can they transport soldiers and officers or either, or attempt to break any blockade which may be lawfully established and maintained during the war, without incurring the risk of hostile capture, and the penalties denounced by the law of nations in that behalf."

THE HAPPIEST PERIOD OF LIFE.—We copy from the genial pages of Anthony Trollope the following description of the most blissful period of human existence, not on account of its truth, though that is sweet and beautiful; but because it sets forth a lesson of useful industry that deserves to be read and pondered:

"Perhaps there is no period so pleasant among all the pleasant periods of love-making as that in which the intimacy between lovers is so assured, and the coming event so near, as to produce and endure conversation about the ordinary little matters of life; what can be done with the limited means at their disposal; how that life shall be begun which they shall lead together; what ideas each has of the other's duties; what each can do for the other. There was a true sense of the delight of intimacy in the girl who declared that she never loved her lover so well as when she told him how many pairs of stockings she had got. It is very sweet to gaze at the stars, and it is sweet to sit among the hay cocks. The reading of poetry together, out of the same book, with brows all close, and arms mingled, is very sweet; the pouring out of whole hearts in writing words, which the writer knows would be held to be ridiculous by any eyes or ears and sense but those of the dear one to whom they are sent, is very sweet; but for the girl who has made a shirt for the man she loves, there has come a moment in the last stitch of it sweeter than any stars, hay cork, poetry or superlative epithets have produced."

"As for the coolers coming here" said Mrs. Partington, as she wiped her brow with the old bandana handkerchief, bearing the pictorial representation of the battle of Lake Erie; "I should say let 'em come; for goodness knows it is hot enough, with every rag of one's clothes so satiated with moisture, that one almost wishes himself to be a great white bear and sit on the top of the North Pole, if it would be proper, and ice so dear! The more of 'em the better, I should say, with the mockery at ninety, and going up at that, goodness help us! O if heaven would only freeze the ponds over in summer what a luxury it would be, with ice for pic-nics, and no thanks to the monopolarizers, who are taking advantage of folks' extremities, and are pinching 'em to make 'em pay, so that a ten cent ice cream isn't enough to fill a hollow tooth with, if anybody should want to, and iced lemonade is not to be thought of without paying for it, and the lord knows where it will end, unless the coolers come." She stopped, exhausted in the idea and breath, wiping her face with her handkerchief, while Ike sat beside the full milk pan with a boat in it, the sails of which he was filling by fanning it with Mrs. P.'s great black Sunday fan, with the red flowers on it, that she had just laid away in the drawer upstairs.

TOO MUCH FOR HIM.—A young man who actually desired wealth was visited by his Santanic majesty, who tempted him to dispose of his soul for eternity, if he could be supplied on earth with all the money he could use. The bargain was concluded; the devil was to supply the money, and was at last to have the soul, unless the young man could spend more money than the devil could furnish.—Years passed away; the man married, was extravagant in his living, built palaces, speculated wildly, lost and gave away fortunes, and yet his coffers were always full. He turned politician, and bribed his way to honor and fame, without reducing his pile of gold. He became a filibuster, and fitted out ships and armies, but his banker honored all his drafts. He went to New York to live, and paid the usual rate of interest for all the money he could borrow; but though the devil made faces when he came to pay the bills, yet they were all paid. One expedient after another failed. The devil counted the time only two years that he must wait for the soul; and he mocked the efforts of the despairing man. One more trial was resolved upon—the man started a newspaper! The devil growled at the bill at the end of the first quarter was savage in six months, melancholy in nine, and broke, dead broke, at the end of the year! So the newspaper went down but the soul was saved.

A NEW story of hotel charges: A visitor passed two days at a famous hotel at Chantilly, and then called for his bill. At sight of the sum charged he was furious. "A hundred and ten francs for two days!" he exclaimed; "a hundred and ten francs for two or three bad dinners and two wretched nights passed in a bed full of bugs!" "How? Were there bed bugs!" said the hotel keeper in delight, "and I was going to forget them. Give me the bill," The traveler handed back the bill to the landlord, who added:

Bed bugs .... 2 francs

FATALISTIC FRENCH FIGURES.

Either the French have more reason to believe in a kind of fatalism attaching to dates and figures, or else they are more ingenious in searching out singular coincidences in the dates and figures of their national affairs—the reader may take which theory he pleases. Now that the star of Napoleon is very low in the horizon, and likely to set, it may be interesting to recall some of these strange coincidences, which by their continual recurrence have acquired a kind of prophet like power over the French imagination. For instance, Robespierre fell from power in 1794, and the first germ of the Napoleonic era may be dated from the same year; add to 1794 its four component numbers, one, seven, nine and four, and we come to 1815, the year when Napoleon's power finally ended. Louis VI ascended the throne in 1774; add 1774 to one, seven, seven and four, and they make 1793, the year when the ill-fated monarch was executed. The great French Revolution began in 1789; add to this one, seven, eight, nine, and we arrive at the year 1814, when the exile to Elba put an end to the French conquests in Europe. The Bourbons were restored in 1815; add this date to one, eight, one, five, and we have the date 1830, when the Bourbons were once more expelled. Louie Phillippe was born in 1773, and came to the throne in 1830; add 1830 to one, seven, seven, three, and we come to 1848, the year of his expulsion. His queen, Amelia, was born in 1782; add 1830 to one, seven, eight, two, and we arrive in the same way at the precise year 1848. Once more: That royal couple were married in 1809: add 1830 to one, eight, nought, nine, and here again crops up the fated year 1848. To say the least these coincidences are remarkable, and it is not probable that history furnishes a parallel to them.

This curious fact, discovered by some cabalistic genius, set the astrologers a-going to find out the new emperor's horoscope by the old date manipulation, with the following result: Louis Napoleon was born 1808, and became emperor in 1852, add 1852 to one, eight, nought, eight, and you have 1869. The Empress Eugenie was born in 1826; add 1852 to one, eight, two, six, and there similarly arises the date 1869; also, add 1852 to one, eight, five, three, and for the third time you arrive at 1869. Therefore, said the figure prophet, "1869 will be the downfall of the Emperor." But the prophets were mistaken this time. The year 1869 rolled round, not without convulsions, but the Emperor fell not, and seemed stronger than ever at its close.

But the astrologers bethought them about this time that the Emperor, though elected in 1852, was not crowned till 1853. This, then, was the real date of the empire, and the coincidences of figures, instead of pointing to 1869, pointed really to 1870.

As we watch the apparently resistless progress of the people against Napoleon's incompetency, the stormy scenes in the Deputies, the hints of a republic, the complicated diseases of the Emperor himself, it seems the likeliest thing in the world, that the star of the second empire, like that of the first, should set in blood and darkness before the year 1870 is done. If so, these last coincidences of dates would have a terrible significance, and still further confirm the French in their faith in figures.

DISGRACEFUL CONDUCT AT A FUNERAL.—The funeral of John Real, in New York, on Sunday week, who was hanged on the previous Friday, was the largest since the funeral of the famous Bill Poole. It is estimated that six or seven thousand persons marched in the procession, and fully one hundred thousand along the route looked on as spectators. The crowd was so great, and there was such a pressure to see the corpse of the criminal, that the police had the greatest difficulty to preserve order and prevent disturbance. Just as the coffin was lowered into the grave an excited individual appeared at the edge, and throwing two rotten eggs on the coffin, drew a revolver in a threatening manner. He was seized immediately, and in the scuffle which ensued, fell into the grave on the coffin with the person who seized him. Both parties were soon dragged out and order restored, when the sexton proceeded with the work of filling up the grave. It is said that he was a brother of the wife of the officer killed by Real, and sought further revenge for his widowed sister. Of course he pretended to be crazy!

A young lady of an "accomplished education," of course, addressed a letter to her feminine cousin, residing in a neighboring town as follows: "Deer Kussin the wether whar we is air kold and reckon whar you is it air kold we all is well an muther hus gott the his Tericks and bruther Tom has the Huppin Koff an sister Sal got a Baby an I hoap these fu lynes wil fine you in the same kendishun rite sune apheckshunate Kusin."

This reminds us of a letter we saw during the late war, from a young man to his "sweetheart," which ran thusly:

"My Deer Sary An I take my pen and seat in hand to rite u a fu lynes tu let u no that i am well butt my horse has broak his lerg an has a mighty soar back an i hoap when these fu lynes coms to hand tha will fine u injoyin the same blessing."

AT Plymouth, there is, or was, a small green opposite the Government House, over which no one was permitted to pass. Not a creature was allowed to approach save the General's cow; and the sentry had particular orders to turn away any one who ventured to cross the forbidden turf. One day, old Lady D——, having called at the General's, in order to make a short cut, bent her steps across the lawn, when she was arrested by the sentry calling out and desiring her to return and go the other road. She remonstrated. The man said he could not disobey his orders. "But," said Lady D——, with a stately air, "do you know who I am?" "I don't know who you be, ma'am," replied the immovable sentry, "but I know who you ain't—you ain't the General's cow!"

WHAT KIND OF A MAN.—There must have been some curious specimens of Scottish humor brought out at the examination or catechizings by ministers' flocks before the administration of the communion. Thus, with reference to human nature before the fall, a man was asked:

"What kind of a man was Adam?"

"Oh, jist like other folk."

The minister insisted on having a more special description of the first man, and pressed for more explanation.

"Weel," said the catechumen, "he was just like Joe Simpson, the horse couper."

"How so?" asked the minister.

"Weel, naebody got onything by him, and many lost."

AN IMPORTANT LETTER FROM THE HON. JAMES L. ORR.

The letter by the Hon. James L. Orr, of South Carolina, ex-Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, which has recently been so severely criticised in the columns of the Charleston News and some other Southern newspapers, is a strong, outspoken declaration from this old South Carolina politician, slave-holder and Rebel (who at the outbreak of the war occupied a position in the State second to none) in favor of the Republican party. The ex-Speaker says:

"1. I shall vote for Scott and Ransier, Repubiican nominees for Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

"2. I cannot vote for the nominees of the Union Reform party, because, in my judgment, the purpose which they propose to accomplish is entirely impracticable, and the nominations made by their Convention will not only accomplish no good results, but the consequences of the nomination and canvass must be pernicious. The avowed purpose of the Convention was to effect reforms in the administration of the State Government. In some of its departments retrenchment and reform is, doubtless, greatly needed—some of its offices are filled by incompetent and corrupt men, who should be driven from the places they occupy. More economy in the appropriations and disbursements of public money should be practiced.

"How are these objects to be attained? The only reforms in the State Government that can be successfully accomplished, at least for many years to come, must be by and through the Republican party and its organizations. They have control of all the Departments of the State Government, and have a majority of more than 30,000 voters to preserve and perpetuate that control. So long as an opposing party, disavowing Republicanism, is organized in the State to defeat and displace them, so long will party machinery and appeals to party appliances preserve its unity and supremacy. If we want an illustration of the strength and constancy of party organization in securing self-perpetuation, look to the State of Vermont thirty years prior to the war, when it annually rolled up its 25,000 or more majority for the Whig party, despite all the efforts of the Democracy, aided most of the time by Federal influence and patronage.—When you attempt to reform a party by destroying it—which is the present mode of reform adopted—the first law of nature, self-preservation, appeals to each member of that party to resist the new movement, and avert its destruction. Such an antagonism has another most baleful influence. The most active, and oftentimes the most unscrupulous partisans, exaggerate the importance of maintaining party usage and discipline, and the great mass of the honest portion of the party are thus diverted from a careful examination into the fitness of those seeking to represent them, and from abuses and corruptions existing in the party."

Ex-Speaker Orr does not pretend to justify all the things which have been done by those now in power in the Republican organization in South Crrolina. His position is that it is easier to secure reform through the Republican party than in opposition to it; that the triumph of the Republican party in any event is certain, and that the efforts of good men should therefore be directed toward the selection of the best candidates from amo[illegible] publicans. He concludes with [illegible] ment of the Republican work [illegible] Carolina:

"That notwithstanding the fa[illegible] cause of complaint may exist against the Republian party for sins of omission and commission, they have done much to ameliorate the condition of the white people of the State; ameliorations which the Legislature of the State, in 1865 and 1866, refused to grant. That party has secured a homestead to the head of every family, Thousands of women and children in this State would have been hopeless and homeless, naked and starved, but for the beneficent provisions of the homestead enactment. Every voter thus protected should remember, when he comes to cast his vote, who furnishes a shelter in the sunshine and storm, over the head of his wife and children, despite the stale claims of heartless creditors,—that this same party has protected all debtors in their Constitution from paying debts contracted for slave property.

That this same party has been equal to the humane progress of the age in abolishing imprisonment for debt. That this same party, whatever may have been its extravagance or improvidence, has raised the market value of the bonds of the State from twenty-six cents in January, 1868, to about ninety cents at the present time.

If good and true men will consent to accept the Reconstruction acts of Congress and the legislation, federal and State, necessarily growing out of them; if they will accept the new conditions surrounding us; if they will affiliate with the Republican organization, especially in this State, we will profit largely by what they have done correctly, and much can be accomplished to correct abuse and malfeasance that may have grown up in the anomalous state of affairs surrounding us.

Believing no good result can flow from the Reform movement, I shall vote for the nominees of the Rebublican party."

Very respectfully,
JAMES L. ORR.

GRANT'S TACTICS OVER AGAIN.—General Grant's campaign from the Wilderness, on an enlarged scale, says the New York Herald, is reproduced in the present German invasion of France. As Grant at every point, in and out of the Wilderness, wherever he could find the enemy, fought him to cut him up, and to divide his forces, and to flank them, and to get ahead of them, and to cut them off from Richmond, so the Prussian Generals, from the frontier operations of Saarbruck, Wissembourg, Woerth, Haguenau, Froeschweiller, &c., have been marching and fighting to cut up, envelop, divide and cut off the retreat of the French army to Paris. So far, too, this campaign of King William has been marked by greater successes than the famous fighting and flanking campaign of General Grant.

PETER CARTWRIGHT, the noted Methodist preacher, spoke at Dubuque, Iowa, a few days ago, and a paper of that city remarks: "It was a strange sight, and one we may never expect to see again, to behold a man in the pulpit before us who was 86 years old, had been 80 years a citizen of the West, and who, 60 years ago, crossed the Mississippi where is now St. Louis.—He preached in the State of Illinois when Chicago was unknown, and he has spent 60 years in the saddle riding through the great West."

A MAN once went out to purchase a horse. "Will he draw well?" asked the buyer. "Thee will be pleased to see him draw." The bargain was concluded and the farmer tried the horse, but he would not stir a step. He returned and said, "That horse will not draw an inch." "I did not tell thee that it would draw, friend; I only remarked that he would please thee to see him draw. So it would me, but he would never gratify me in that respect."

A WESTERN paper tells us that "grasshoppers are at their old tricks in Utah, roosting on the railroad tracks and stopping trains."

WHILE the Copperhead Press is making a good deal of noise about the large national debt and the heavy burdens of the tax-payers, it is well to remember that every dollar of this debt is a Democratic legacy to the country, the result of a War waged against the Government by Democratic Traitors. When the Rebellion was inaugurated every Department of the National Government—legislative and executive—was Democratic. Every Southern State that supported the Rebellion was under Democratic administration, and during the War Democratic presses and Democratic leaders gave active aid and comfort to armed Rebels, prolonging the war and necessitating increased sacrifices in men and money. The National Debt is therefore essentially a Democratic debt, the result of Democratic misrule, disloyalty and treason, and whatever of burden there may be to the tax-payer, it must be charged up against the Democratic party.

Another thing, it is well to remember—that with the rigid economy introduced into the National administration under Republican rule, not only is the National Debt being steadily diminished, but the burdens of tax-payers are also being largely lightened. A Republican Congress has made a reduction of more than Two Hundred and Fifty Millions of Dollars in internal taxation and custom duties. The aggregate reduction, as shown by the official statement of the Treasury Department, is $254,848,827, divided as follows: By the act of July 16, 1866, $65,000,000; by act of March 2, 1867, $40,000,000; by act of February 3, 1868, $23,000,000; by act of March 31, and July 20, 1868, $48,000,000; by act of July 14, 1870, $55,212,000—total reduction in internal taxation $231,212,000.—The estimated decrease of duties on imports by the act of July 14, 1870, is $23,636,827—making the total reduction in internal taxation and custom duties, $254,848,827.

Let every intelligent voter bear these facts in mind—compare them with the results of Democratic rule, wherever that party is in power—and then determine whether it would be safe to trust these blatant place-seekers with the control of the Government.

THE Democratic Congressional Conference met at McConnellsburg on the 24th ult., and nominated B. F. Meyers of Bedford for Congress. Adams voted for McSherry, Fulton for Smith, Franklin, Bedford and Somerset for Meyers. For some time the nomination of Mr. Meyers has been regarded a foregone conclusion. Mr. McSherry's friends were kept under the impression that he stood some chance, but sharp politicians knew it was all bosh. Mr. Meyers is an old politician, and an adept at managing political wires. Although he has successfully manipulated the Democratic Conferees, he will find more trouble to manipulate the voters of the district. If the Democracy are satisfied with the nomination, the Republicans surely should be. If ever the opposition had the ghost of a chance to beat Mr. Cessna, they have utterly thrown it away, by putting up Mr. Meyers as his opponent. If the five counties had been thoroughly explored, we doubt if a more pronounced, ultra, vindictive Democrat could have been scared up—one with a more obnoxious political record, in all respects. A sympathizer with the South during the Rebellion, an avowed Free-trader, he cannot expect to command a single Republican vote, and ought to have difficulty in polling the vote of his own party. Mr. Meyers is editor of the Bedford Gazette, and also of the Harrisburg Patriot. No two Democratic papers in the State were more outspoken in their opposition to the War for the suppression of the Rebellion—more vindictive in their denunciations of the chieftains who led our armies to victory—more malevolent in their attacks on President Lincoln—or more persistent in their hostility to the entire policy of the Republican party. Mr. Meyers' nomination at once consolidates the Republican ranks, and ensures the triumphant re-election of Hon. John Cessna.

THE "Brick Pomeroy" branch of the Democracy have a man after their own heart in their candidate in this district for Congress—B. F. MEYERS, of the Bedford Gazette. He is emphatically a "red-hot"—and not a recent one, either. He "proved his faith by his works," long ago.

In 1863, in his newspaper, he advised the Bedford county Democracy to shoot the enrolling officers who were preparing to conscript them to fight in the "unconstitutional" war for the Union!—We believe some took his advice, and were only saved from committing murder by missing their intended victims.

In 1865, he had soft words only for BOOTH, and indirectly justified the assassination of LINCOLN, by denouncing LINCOLN as a tyrant who deserved his fate, and by comparing his murder with historical characters who are remembered with a feeling akin to admiration.

There is no mistaking MEYERS's politics. All admirers of assassination as a political agent, should vote for him.

GOV. GEARY has issued a proclamation notifying County Commissioners, Sheriffs, Assessors, and other State Officers that it is their duty to see that the Fifteenth Amendment shall be enforced at the approaching State election. County Commissioners are enjoined to instruct the several Assessors and Registers of voters to obey and conform to the requirements of said Constitutional Amendment and laws; and the Sheriffs are instructed to publish it in their election proclamation.

MEYERS's principles are precisely those of the Southern Ku-Klux.

SALE OF THE GETTYSBURG RAIL ROAD.

In accordance with the Decree of the Supreme Court, foreclosing the Mortgage, Mr. Swope, the Trustee, advertises the sale of the Gettysburg Railroad, to take place at the Merchants' Exchange, Philadelphia, on Thursday, October 13. The advertisement will be found in to-day's paper.

As there seems to be no probability of the resident Bondholders forming any combination to purchase the road, we take it for granted that it will pass into new hands, possibly the Pennsylvania Central or the Reading Railroad Company.

In the franchises of the Gettysburg Railroad Company, holding the right of way from the Susquehanna to the Potomac, the road has a value over and above the bed, rolling stock, &c. The revenues of the line from Gettysburg to Hanover now pay all working expenses and six per cent. on the full amount of the Mortgage Bonds. Were the link from New Oxford to York or Columbia completed, and the road extended to the Baltimore and Ohio road, the local traffic would be largely increased, besides opening up an immense trade, in connection with the Cumberland coal region and the lines of railway pushing Southwest through the Shenadoah Valley. As a through line from Philadelphia or New York to the Southwest, the route via Gettysburg to Hagerstown, is from 30 to 40 miles shorter than by the Cumberland Valley Road.

By legislative enactments the bed of the old "tape-worm," in the construction of which the State expended over half a million of dollars, was transferred to the Gettysburg Railroad Company, and will pass to the purchasers, with the franchises, including the right to tap the Baltimore and Ohio road.

We have no information as to the purposes of either the Pennsylvania Central or Reading Companies. Into whosever hands the road passes, we hope that it will be extended.

WE have heretofore adverted to the strong sympathy for the French, in the Franco-Prussian war, manifested by the Democratic Press. The New York World, the leading Democratic organ in the east, has all along boldly defended the desperate usuper who rules France, by reason of whose personal ambition the fairest fields of Europe are to-day drenched in blood, and thousands of precious lives are being sacrificed in the most causeless and wicked war of modern times. The Chicago Times, the leading Democratic organ of the west, vies with the World in earnest defence of Napoleon and malignant denunciation of the Germans. In a recent article on the subject, the Times, referring to the meetings called to express sympathy with Prussia, gives the Germans the following compliment:

> It may be added that these German meetings to express sympathy for the Prussians are exhibitions of very cheap patriotism—worthy, however, of descendants of the hireling Hessians who fought against American Independence in 1776.

Our Teutonic friends will no doubt appreciate this highly complimentary notice, and the general hostility of the Democratic press to the "father-land."

We have intimated that this singular sympathy for the reckless French despot was mainly due to the aid and comfort he sought to render to the Rebellion, while Germany declared for our Government, buying our Bonds when European bankers wouldn't touch them, and otherwise giving substantial tokens of sympathy. So they understand it down South. Last week at the Alleghany Springs, Virginia, where Rebel sympathizers are wont to congregate, a vote was taken to test the feeling of the visitors. The vote stood two to one in favor of France, Generals Beauregard and Hardee voting on the side of France.

THE Democracy of the York, Cumberland and Perry Congressional district are in sore trouble. The candidate was conceded to Cumberland, and York and Perry instructed for Haldeman, the present member. Haldeman, however, failed to carry his own county, being beaten by Bratton, of the Carlisle Volunteer, and the latter demands the nomination on the ground that York and Perry have no right to dictate whom the Democracy of Cumberland should present as their candidate. Haldeman, however, can't see it in that light, and having the cards in his own hands insists on playing them. On Thursday last, the Conferees of the three counties met at Bridgeport. Bratton, finding Haldeman determined to carry out his programme, refused to allow his Conferees to enter the conference; wherefore the Conferees of York and Perry proceeded formally to declare Haldeman the candidate of the party—Bratton protesting and announcing his determination not to abide the action of the conference. Where it will all end, is hard to tell. If Bratton has grit enough to show fight, there will be two Democratic candidates. In any contingency a strong Republican candidate, taking advantage of this bitter Democratic feud, might possibly redeem the district.

THE following section of the Act of Congress, approved July 15, 1870, may be of interest to those who served in the War for the suppression of the Rebellion. We find it among the official acts published by authority of law:

> Section 25. And be it further enacted, That every private soldier and officer who has served in the army of the United States during the rebellion, for ninety days, and remained loyal to the Government, and every seaman, marine and officer, or other person, who was served in the navy of the United States, or marine corps or revenue marine, during the rebellion, for ninety days, and remained loyal to the Government, shall, on payment of the fee or commission to any register or receiver of any land office required by law, be entitled to enter one quarter section of land, not mineral, of the alternate reserved sections of public lands along the lines of any one of the railroads or other public works in the United States, wherever public lands have been or may be granted by acts of Congress, and to receive a patent therefor under and by virtue of the provisions of the act to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain, and the acts amendatory thereof, and on the terms and conditions therein prescribed; and all the provisions of said acts, except as herein modified, shall extend and be applicable to entries under this act, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office is hereby authorized to prescribe the necessary rules and regulations to carry this section into effect, and determine all facts necessary therefor.

THE tax-payers of one of the Democratic counties of lower Maryland, (Queen Anne,) are groaning grievously over an increase in the County Taxes.—But the increase is small, compared with that of the County Tax of this county, this year, and does not yet reach our figure—eight mills in the dollar.

We believe, however, our County Tax is the highest in Pennsylvania—thanks to the "Democratic" mismanagement which has brought utter confusion into our County Accounts, and thereby offered inducement to every sort of irregularity. How long will the people endure such incompetency and recklessness?

WE see it stated that the Hon. John Allison, Register of the U. S. Treasury, will assist in the campaign in Pennsylvania this fall, and will speak in Franklin and Adams counties. Mr. Allison's thorough acquaintance with the condition of the national finances and the measures of the Administration for the reduction of our public debt will make his speeches of sterling worth to the party. Mr. Allison's appointments for Adams county will be announced in due time.

THE Democratic Conferees of this Congressional District have rendered the Republicans a marked favor, in the nomination of B. F. Meyers. Prominent Democrats already concede the election of Mr. Cessna.

[From the N. Y. Tribune, August 18.

THE NEW AMERICAN STEEL.

The fertile, thrifty, wealthy old county of York, Pennsylvania, lies across the Susquehanna from Lancaster, and is watered by the Codorus, Conewago, and other tributaries of that broad-bosomed river. The rich valley of the Codorus and its tributaries is largely underlaid by a deposit of the favorite iron ore known as Brown Hematite, which, though but little iron has been smelted in this unprogressive county, is largely mined and sent away to mix with other and generally poorer ores—immense quantities of it being daily sent to the great works of David Thomas and others in the distant valley of the Lehigh.

From this valley there rises, in the township of North Codorus, a range of rounded, sloping hills, which have been long known to contain and in good part consist of a peculiar micacious ore; but little success and no profit has attended its conversion into iron, since it yields from 30 to 35 per cent. of metal, and this of poor quality. At length, it was ascertained—more by luck, we believe, that by scientific induction—that this unpromising ore, being mixed with middling pig iron in an ordinary reverberatory furnace at the rate of one to six, would produce, by the ordinary puddling process, a pure steel of admirable quality and remarkably uniform in character.

We visited on Monday the range of hills in question—estimated to contain seventeen millions of tons of unripe ore—and looked into a dozen different shafts or drifts which have been sunk or run into the hill nearest Hanover Junction on the Northern Central railroad (distant two miles). The branch road to Gettysburg runs at the southern base of the entire range. The ore up to thousands of tons per day, can be mined and loaded directly into cars for Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, at a cost of $1 per ton. Being thrown down by blast or pick, mainly in the form of bowlders of medium tenacity, it will in time be largely shipped as ballast, and so transported to European as well as American furnaces.

The owners of the mine have just completed at York a pudding furnace and rolling-mill, wherein we witnessed the conversion of medium Pennsylvania Pig Iron, worth $30 per ton, into Steel that would certainly be cheap at $120 per ton. For ten tons of this steel, the material required would be eleven tons of pig iron, costing $300, and two tons Codorus Ore, costing $20—together, $320. Add ten tons of Bituminous coal, costing $30, and $250 for labor and all other expences, and a very choice steel rail ought to be made, by the help of this ore at a cost of $60 per ton.

We call the attention of railroad men and all interested in metallurgy to this wonderful discovery. They can test its merits in an ordinary reverberatory furnace, by simply buying a few tons of the Codorous ore, attempting by its aid to convert ordinary pig iron into choice steel at a single heat, by simple processes with which they are perfectly familiar. If they have the requisite machinery for rolling them, they will of course next try their hand at converting their blooms into rails. But they are not required to buy mines, nor erect new works, nor to take anything on trust. If they doubt that steel is made as above set forth, York is not far off, and the furnace aforesaid is spacious, and open to all comers. Their own eyes are not likely to mislead them.

That the steel made as aforesaid, at a cost which cannot reach $80 per ton, is of choice quality, we were assured by Col. Boyer, of Pottsville, who has no interest in this discovery, and never visited the mines till Monday, but who has used the product in tool-making for his machine shops, where only the very best steel will answer. His statements need no confirmation, but have received it.

We count the Bessemer process superseded by this discovery, whereby a perfect Steel is produced, with no risk of failure, and at a cost considerable less than that of the famous British process. And we trust that other and equally important triumphs in the mixture and manipulation of Ores will derive their impulse from this.

GERMAN TROOPS IN THE FIELD.—The correspondence of Berlin enumerates the German troops now in the field as follows: Confederation of the North—Infantry, 550,000; cavalry, 53,000; artillery, 1,200 guns: infantry recruits 188,000; cavalry 18,000; artillery 234; landwehr infantry 205,000, cavalry 10,000—total for the Confederation of the North, 994,000 men, 1,680 pieces of artillery and 193,000 horses. Adding to these the trooops of Bavaria, Wurtemburg and Baden, there is a force of 1,124,000.

VICE Admiral Porter has been appointed Admiral in the United States Navy, to fill the vacancy occurred by the death of the lamented Farragut. Admiral Porter's commission bears date of the 20th ult.—His services are too familiar to our readers to need recital.

REAR Admiral Goldsborough, it is believed, will receive the appointment of Vice Admiral, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of Admiral Porter.

DURING the last five years the reduction of taxation, in accordance with the acts of Congress, amounts to $251,848,827, and yet it is a standing but now a threadbare complaint of Democratic journals and speakers that the Republican party never seeks to ameliorate the burden of taxation on the people. This one fact is a sufficient contradiction.

WHAT PRUSSIA IS FIGHTING FOR.

MONDAY, Aug. 29.—While the despatches from the seat of War continue somewhat confused and contradictory, much of the uncertainty of the last few days has been cleared away. It is now admitted that Bazaine is in Metz, closely besieged by the Prussians. He has about 90,000 men, badly provisioned, and unless he can cut his way through the Prussians lines, or be relieved, he must surrender for lack of supplies.

McMahon, who had gathered at Chalons a force of about 185,000, evacuated that place last week, burning such supplies as could not be moved, and moved northward by way of Rheim and Mezierses, and along the Belgium frontier, seeking to flank the Prussian forces holding the road to Verdun, and reach Metz by Thionville. The Prussians, comprehending this movement, threw a force northward towards the Belgium frontier, to intercept McMahon's march. The advance guards come into collision at several points north of Verdun, but there has been no fighting of any consequence, the French avoiding battle. The last accounts represents McMahon's movement as having failed and that he had fallen back to Mezierses, where he holds himself in readiness to march to Paris or towards Metz as the emergency may demand.

In the mean-time the Prussian advance to Paris continues slowly but steadily. King William had joined the Crown Prince with head-quarters at Bar de Luc, south-east of Chalons. Prince Frederick Charles had also joined the Crown Prince with a portion of his army to operate on the line to Paris, leaving Gen. Steinmetz to to watch Bazaine at Metz.

The Prussian cavalry had appeared at Chateau Thierre, west of Chalons and only 35 miles from Paris. At Paris all is confusion and dissension, a difference having occurred between General Trochu and the Government, and his dismissal from command demanded by the Empress. M. Thiers was placed on the Committee of Safety, and accepted the appointment on Saturday. A Paris letter expresses the belief that a Committee of Safety will be formed and the Emperor deposed. A Berlin official despatch says that Vitry, near Rheims, was surrendered to the Prussians on the same day, seventeen officers and eight hundred and fifty soldiers being captured.

The bombardment of Strasbourg and Pfalzburg still continues, but without any decisive result. The Prussians have a reserve army of three hundred thousand forming in Germany to follow the forces already in France.

PROCLAMATION OF THE PRUSSIANS TO THE PEOPLE OF FRANCE.

The Prince Royal of Prussia has issued a proclamation to the people of France, wherein he says Prussia makes war against the Emperor and not against the people of France. The people have nothing whatever to fear. The Prince announces his purpose to instantly restore the lines of travel which have been interrupted or destroyed by army movements, so that labor and commerce may be everywhere resumed. All the French officers are requested to remain at their posts and their personal safety is guaranteed. The Prince further says that only surplus food will be taken for the German troops; that only which is not required by the peaceful French.

WEDNESDAY, Aug 31.—There has as yet been no serions fighting. There are reports of daily skirmishes along the Belgium frontier between Rheims, Sedan, Verdun, and Metz. Immense bodies of French and Prussian troops are massed in that section, and a heavy battle cannot long be avoided. Although it is difficult to get at the truth, in the numberless contradictory despatches, in London the impression was general that Bazaine is closely besieged in Metz, and that McMahon is maneuvering to raise the siege, while Prince Charles is closely watching him, and determined to prevent his moving on Metz. Both sides have received reinforcements.

In the meantime the Crown Prince moves steadily towards Paris, where intense excitement prevailed. It is said the Ministry are preparing to leave Paris, and go to Tours, a fortified city in the south-western part of France, where the seat of Goverement will be established. The fortifications of Paris were being manned, and immense supplies drawn in from the surrounding country in anticipation of a siege by the Prussians.

The siege of Strasburg, Metz, Thionvill, Pfalzburg, &c., continue. Much damage has been done at Strasburg by the heavy Prussian guns, but the city holds out.

Measures have been taken to blow up the bridges and tear up the railways around Paris promptly on the approach of the enemy.

Army correspondents in France are faring badly. Austin, of the London Times, is imprisoned at Rheims; Hall of the Graphic, is imprisoned at Nancy; Holdsworth, of the News, has been escorted back to Paris under guard.

Gen. Trochu has issued an order expelling all Germans from Paris. Its execution will create much distress, and imposes exacting duties on the American Minister, Mr. Washburn, who, at the request of Prussia, had assumed their protection.

THE LATEST.

ANOTHER GREAT BATTLE.

McMAHON AGAIN DEFEATED.

BOUILLON, August 31—7 P. M.—A fearful battle was fought yesterday and to-day by the Prussian armies of the Crown Prince and Prince Frederick Charles with the forces of Marshal McMahon. Yesterday morning Marshal McMahon commenced a general movement towards Montmedy, and he was attacked near Beaumont and driven back, after an obstinate resistance, towards the Belgian frontier.

The Prussians occupied the line of the road and captured a large amount of camp stores. They drove the French from position after position until night closed.

Early this morning the battle was renewed, and continued all day. During the night a large number of French reinforcements came up, but they failed to turn the scale of victory. The Prussians were also reinforced largely, and attacked in overwhelming numbers. Marshal McMahon retreated to Sedan with the remainder of his forces. The slaughter is immense, but it is impossible to estimate the loss. The Prince Imperial is said to be in Belgium. The population are flying in great terror.

King William telegraphed the result of the fight to the Queen at Berlin, as follows:

VARENNES, August 31.—We had yesterday a victorious engagement. McMahon was beaten and driven from Beaumont across the Meuse to Mousson. Twelve guns, several thousand prisoners and much material fall into our hands. I repair to the battle-field to pursue the route of the victory. God help us further.

SHREWSBURY CAMP-MEETING.

FREELAND'S CAMP Aug. 23, 1870.

DEAR STAR AND SENTINEL:—I have spent some time at this interesting Camp, and haste to pen a few lines of its progress before you go to press. The introductory sermon of this camp was delivered on Thursday evening last, by Rev. Mr. Shannon, and was a very interesting discourse indeed and appropriate to the cause. Dr. Butler followed in an exhortation that was alive with interest, and enjoyed by the people.

Several prayer and experience meetings were held on the following morning, and at 9 o'clock the same (Friday) morning, a dedicatory meeting was held, and the members of the church were requested to dedicate themselves anew to the Lord, and a refreshing time they had.

At 11 o'clock the Rev. Jos. France preached a sermon and with earnestness and profit to the people. At 2 o'clock a children's meeting was held in one of the tents, which was addressed by quite a number of ministers, and at 3 o'clock Rev. Dr. Butler delivered a very entertaining discourse on the work which God has given every man to do. Quite a number of ministers arrived to-day. On the arrival quite an addition is made to the various stations.

On Friday evening Rev. Norris, preached a solemn and pointed sermon from Revelations, after which interesting prayer-meetings were held with success—seven souls professing to have been converted. Prayer-meetings were held on Saturday morning, and several stirring exhortations delivered with good effect. At 11 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Lemon delivered an earnest discourse. He was followed by others. At 2 o'clock an interesting children's meeting was held, and spirited addresses delivered. At 3 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Haslup preached a very neat and indeed touching sermon. Also preaching in the evening. The weather fine and evenings cool. The trains from Baltimore on Saturday evening brought a large number of people from the city, which swelled the crowd to an immense number.

Sunday has been a delightful day—the temperature congenial. Large numbers of people from the surrounding country were arriving up to the hour of preaching—not less than five thousand persons were on the ground by ten o'clock, and still more in the afternoon. A love-feast was held by Rev. J. France, when over one hundred persons spoke. The tide of religious feeling was high. Dr. Sims filled the morning appointment—a sweet sermon indeed, and the people greatly stirred. The services throughout the day and evening were grand and interesting. Not the slightest disorder occurred to mar the pleasure of the day, except that a lady was kicked on the head by a horse and severely injured.

The religious interest of the camp continues to increase, although the number of persons are diminished, as is usual on Mondays. The Rev. Mr. Dosh preached in the morning and Rev. Speake in the afternoon, and both appeared to be filled with the fulness of God.

On Tuesday morning the Rev. Mr. Inskip held a meeting of holiness—at 9 o'clock prayer-meeting, and at 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Inskip discoursed on the subject of holiness, and at the conclusion of his discourse he invited all who desired the blessing of sanctification to bow at the altar, when a large number, ministers and people, came forward. It was a great meeting, and many were blessed. Children's meeting at 2 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Eddy preaching a logical sermon. Preaching in the evening to a large audience. This day there were at least four thousand persons on the ground. The camp now is at its height, and much good is being accomplished—many converts thus far. At least five hundred came from the city this evening.

This, Wednesday morning, the meetings continue to be interesting and well attended. To-morrow after the morning sermon, communion, and the meeting to close after the sermon on Thursday night at 10½ o'clock. There are 400 tents up and well arranged. Every convenience and attention paid to strangers. A large bell to tell the hour of meeting, &c. I leave the ground at 9. In haste.

Yours truly,
A VISITOR.

GETTYSBURG, Aug. 23d 1870.

EDITOR STAR:—Feeling the importance of securing the gratest possible results from our common schools, I am prompted to make a suggestion, that may or may not be practicable. Could not in some, if not all, the townships, a school, properly situated, be selected, that could be used as a higher school, to which the most advanced scholars could go, instead of being compelled to attend at some distant point? The directors should have control in sending scholars from other districts, and by paying a liberal salary and securing a good teacher, with provision for assistance in case of over crowding, a township might thus enjoy many of the benefits of a high school, with comparatively small expense.

IN accordance with State laws Registrars of Elections in some of the Border States have refused to register ex-Confederate soldiers, although they are enfranchised by a recent statute of Congress. The Attorney General has declined to give an opinion on the question, and has referred it to the courts.

HEAVY BONDHOLDERS.—The largest transfer ever made at the Treasury Department of bonds belonging to a single individual was to George Howland and others, trustees of Sylvia Howland, of New Bedford. The amount was $700,000. The next largest sum is $550,000, in registered bonds, belonging to a Parisian gentlman.

THE Pennsylvania Malitia now includes two hundred and seventy-one companies of National Guards, and in these companies are enrolled about thirteen thousand men. About thirty additional companies are now in process of formation, and there will probably be fully three hundred companies organized, armed and equipped by the close of the present year.

THERE is considerable excitement at Salt Lake City in consequence of the arrest by the United States Marshal of Mormons implicated in the burning of the property of Mr. Englebrecht, a Gentile. The Marshal has sworn in a hundred special deputies to assist in enforcing the laws.

ACTING Commissioner Douglass has decided that the act of Congress of July 14th does not relieve gas companies of the United States from tax, and that they have still the privilege of charging it to consumers.

From Madrid it is claimed that the Carlists have been defeated and dispersed. London dispatches say that the movement is increasing in strength, and that the Republicans are working quietly and with confidence.

A TERRIFIC thunder-storm prevailed along the Hudson river on Thursday night. At Kingston five persons were killed by one stroke. Much damage was done.

HON. D. J. Morrel, Republican, has been unanimously nominated for re-election in the 16th Congressional district.

TO THE NERVOUS.

The natural result of exhaustion of strength by excessive labor or action, is a feeling of weakness, dullness, heaviness, weariness, languor of body or mind. &c. Persons of a weak constitution, or whose habits are sedentary, frequently complain of this relaxed condition of the vital energies; and when persons of a nervous temperament are thus weakened and debilitated, disease inevitably follows, unless it is at once checked and overcome. All who suffer from these causes alike require a remedy which will strengthen the system without exciting it, and awake a feeling of true enjoyment, so that life may become a source of pleasure. MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS has won its way into the confidence of thousands of this class of persons, who warmly endorse it as the best invigorating agent, and the most potent and genial of all tonics and alteratives for strengthening and restoring the physical constitution. SALES.—W. N. Flaharty has sold his property on York street, log house and lot of ground, to M. Luther Culp, for $475.

PIC-NIC.—On Wednesday last the Reformed Sunday School of this place had a pleasant Pic-Nic at Spangler's Spring.

OPENED.—The winter session of the Common Schools of this place opened yesterday, Sept. 1. The increasing number of pupils has made a new School necessary, to be known as No. 9.

DEDICATION.—The Lutheran church in Mountjoy township, (Rev. P. Bergstresser, Pastor,) having been recently thoroughly repaired, will be re-dedicated on the third Sabbath in September, the 18th.

NEW BRIDGE.—The Commissioners of Frederick county, Md., are having a bridge erected across Flat Run, at this end of Emmittsburg. The cost will be something over $2,000; the Taylor Brothers contractors.

INSANE.—The Chambersburg Repository states that the wife of Col. A. K. McClure, formerly of Chambersburg, now of Philadelphia, was taken to the Insane Asylum, in Philadelphia, on the 22d ult. For some months she has given evidence of mental derangement.

CAMP MEETING.—The Camp Meeting of the African Methodist Episcopal Church (colored) will commence to day in Wolf's Grove, east of town. On Sunday next a special train will be run on the Railroad from Hanover Junction to the Camp ground.

AGED.—The Littlestown Press says that that one day last week, four gentleman, resident of Littlestown and neighborhood, casually met in Mr. A. F. Barker's store, whose united ages aggregate 308 years, viz: Messrs. Jonathan C. Forrest, aged 84; David Zuck, aged 79; Sterling Galt, aged 74, and Jacob Orndorff, aged 71 years.

INSTALLED.—Rev. C. Scheel was installed as Pastor of the Reformed congregation in Littlestown on the evening of the 24th ult., Revs. Jacob Sechler and W. K. Zieber officiating. After the ceremony of installation, Rev. W. R. H. Deatrich, of this place, preached a very impressive sermon, which was listened to with marked attention by a large audience.

SERENADE.—The Littlestown Press says that the "Littlestown Orchestra," on learning of the nomination of their townsman, Col. Ephraim Myers, by the Republican County Convention, for Assembly, gave him the compliment of a serenade on Tuesday evening the 23d ult. Col. Myers returned the compliment by inviting the Band into his residence, to partake of refreshments provided for the occasion.

A CROWD.—Van Amburg & Co's Menagerie brought a large crowd of people to town on Tuesday last. The exhibition was a fine one and fully realized the general expectation. The collection of animals was very choice, the lions, tigers and leopards being equal, if not superior, to any we ever saw. The entire exhibition was well managed, good order preserved, and everything passed off satisfactorily. The young folks, and some of the older ones, hugely enjoyed the performances of the trained dogs and mules, the capacity of the latter to pitch overboard the best riders evoking much merriment.

FOR RENT.—Several desirable Rooms in south-east corner of the Diamond, the late residence of Hon. R. G. Harper, deceased. For terms, &c., inquire of Mrs. Harper.

☞ Try the "Star Bone Phosphate." See advertisement. tf

PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE.—Pennsylvania College opened yesterday, under most favorable auspices. A number of new Students are on the ground, and the expectation is that there will be a large increase in the aggregate attendance.

The Board of Trustees held a special session on Wednesday to supply the vacancies in the Faculty occasioned by the resignation of Prof. Conrad and the death of Prof. Stoever. The department of Latin Language and Literature, for many years under charge of Prof. Stoever, was transferred to the "Franklin Professorship." Prof. Jacobs, the incumbent of this professorship, is a fine Latin scholar, and admirably qualified for the position. The transfer is entirely satisfactory to the Faculty, and will be cordially approved by the friends of the Institution.

Mr. Samuel P. Sadtler, a son of Rev. Dr. Sadtler, of Lutherville, Md., was unanimously elected Professor of Physical Science. He is represented to be a young man of much promise in the Department of Physical Science. He graduated at Pennsylvania College with the class of 1867, and since then has been assidously prosecuting his studies with a view to making Teaching his life-work. Last fall he graduated at Harvard College, taking the highest honors in the Scientific department, receiving his degree on a Thesis which commanded special attention and subsequently appeared in Silliman's Journal. He then went to Europe, and is now further prosecuting his studies at the University of Gottingen. As the German Universities have generally been closed in consequence of the War with France, it is probable that Mr. Sadtler will return this fall and enter on his new duties at Pennsylvania College next session. In the meantime the Faculty will make full provision for instruction in the department of Physical Science.

The re-organization of the Preparitory Department, with enlarged boarding accommodations, and the satisfactory disposition of the vacant Professorships, give promise of a brighter future for Pennsylvania College, which for years has stood in the front rank of American Educational Institutions—less showy than some, with a higher tone than most, and surpassed by none in the thoroughness of its work. Her graduates, in scholarly attainments and general preparation for the duties of active life, will compare favorably with the oldest and best known Colleges of New England.

CAUTION TO LADIES.—We have recently printed several practical cautions against the use of jute switches and chignons. So long as "fashion" endorses the chignon, we are inclined to think they will be worn, regardless of consequences and despite what may be said or written on the subject. However, it may not be amiss to call the attention of our fair readers to what is said about the use of these monstrosites in head-gear. Here is a paragraph from the Portland (Maine) Press:

Mr. J. P. Smith, the hair dresser, No. 100 Exchange street, showed us last evening one of the vermin which he took yesterday from a jute switch, and it is one of the most repulsive looking insects that we wish to see. It is smaller than the body of a flea, but, put under an ordinary microscope, was magnified to a length of nearly three-quarters of an inch. It is of a brown color, semi-opaque, with nearly as many legs as a centipede. Projecting from the head are two horns, half as long as the creature, curved like the horns of an ibex, corrugated like feelers of a lobster. Attached to the rear part of the body are two pairs of claws, in two parts, the upper closing over the lower, like a parrot's bill. The jaws appear to be of extraordinary power; and, altogether, the sight of such a creature causes one to involuntary shrink. We hear that several ladies in this vicinity have discovered these things in their switches; and we give this additional caution to discard this silly and unsafe style of head-dress. Mr. Smith has this specimen at his room, and those who are curious to investigate and study the structure of the animal are at liberty to do so.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says on the same subject:

The recent revelations about "jute"—the dark, fibrous bark, wherewith women endeavor cheaply to counterfeit the luxuriant heads of hair denied them by nature—have been regarded, no doubt, as merely sensational, or perhaps the product of some misogynic imagination. But the doubters have no chance. The disgusting little borers that fill the fibres of the jute plant, whether used in massive chignons or long bunches, are causing a lively and by no means pleasing excitement in various quarters. Finding their way to the heads of their harborers, they burrow there until the scalp is raw, and in some cases affect the whole nervous system and craze the brain. In this city several women lie in danger of death from this loathsome insect; one of these dwells on the Hill, another on Dwight street, and the disease in its lesser form is quite frequent. Without any hair-splitting, the moral seems to be that "honesty is the best policy," in personal adornment as in business; jute chignons must take their place with the poisonous dyes and lotions of the quacks, as among the implements of fashionable suicide.

MORE INCENDIERISM.—On Sunday night last, several hay-stacks on the farm of Mr. John Spangler, in Mountjoy township, were fired after mid-night, and about 15 tons of hay burned. Some malignant incendiary seems to be pursuing Mr. Spangler with unusual vindictiveness. Two barns were burnt for him on the same premises within the last six months, the last one a new barn just completed. Several previous attempts had been made to fire these hay-stacks.

☞ The Republicans of Frederick county, Md., are preparing for an active campaign this fall, and with the aid of the colored vote expect to carry the county, and elect the member of Congress for the district of Carroll, Frederick, Washington and Alleghany. Judge Smith, of Westminster, will probably be the Republican nominee. The Executive Committee for Emmittsburg district consists of Messrs. Joseph Hays, Samuel Maxell, Maj. O. G. Horner, Joshua Rowe, and Charles A. Gilson.

WANTED—Ten energetic salesmen as travelling agents in Adams County, to sell the celebrated Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machine. Everything furnished.

Reference in writing required—must be well acquainted throughout the county. Call or address

PETERSON & CARPENTER,
Col. Tate's Hotel, Gettysburg, Pa.

Permanent employment and excellent pay. 1t

PHOSPHATE.—The "Star Bone Phosphate," patented by Burkholder & Wilson, is now manufactured on a large scale at Rock Creek bridge, this place. This fertilizer is highly recommended by those who have used and thoroughly tested it. Its application not only insures a good grain crop, but its effect is equally shown on the grass that follows. No farmer ought to put in his wheat or rye this fall without trying the "Star Bone Phosphate." What it has already done it will do again. Nothing pays better. It is manufactured out of the best materials, and with the utmost care, as heretofore, by Peter Boblitz. For sale at all the Warehouses in Gettysburg. 1t

☞ Good Food and Plenty of it produces the same effect upon a person who has been starved that the Peruvian Syrup, an Iron Tonic, does upon the Weak and Debilitated: it makes them strong and vigorous, changing weakness and suffering into strength and health. 1t

WAR MAP.—We have received a copy of LLOYD'S GREAT DOUBLE WAR MAP OF EUROPE, made from photographs of Government Surveys. It gives towns, railroads, streams and country roads, &c., and is acknowledged by leading military men, here and in Europe, to be the most precise and correct map published. These maps should be in the possession of every family. From them every person can obtain a clear conception of the points and movements of the French and Prussian armies in the existing conflict of arms. The reverse side is a perfect map of the United States, Canada and New Brunswick. E. Lloyd, publisher, 90 Cortland Street, N. Y. They are sold at the low price of 50 cents in sheet form; mounted and varnished, $1.00.

ANOTHER.—G. W. & C. R. Colton & Co., New York, have also published an excellent War Map, on a sheet 19 x 32 inches, the upper portion showing, on a scale of 20 miles to an inch, the French and German Frontiers. The scale is sufficiently large to show all the Fortified Cities and other principal points of interest, and the Villages and Streams that will necessarily be mentioned in the war-news. On the same sheet there is a Map of Central and South-Western Europe, showing all of Prussia, France, Spain, and Italy. It is handsomely colored, and illuminated with the Flags of the Combatants, etc.—For sale at all Book Stores and News Offices, or sent by mail for Fifty Cents by the publishers.

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF BOSTON.—Accumulated Assets Jan. 1st 1870, $8,430,000. This Company has a History, being the oldest Mutual life Insurance Company in the country, and is purely mutual.

Its Officers have ever been men of high standing and conservative policy; twenty-seven years experience has shown their management to be both honorable and successful.

The low ratio of expenditures to receipts, averaging only a fraction over nine per cent. and the slight variation in this ratio, from year to year, as shown by the reports of the Company, is a guaranty that their business is conducted systematically and with strictest economy. The stability of the Company, offering as it does absolute security to policy-holders, as shown by the fact of its constantly increasing accumulation of surplus, is a consideration which must have weight with cautious and far seeing men.

The promptness with which the Company has always paid its losses, leaves no uncertainty as to its ability and disposition to act with equal promptness in the settlement of like claims in the future.

Distribution of surplus will be made annually by this company, and will be available one year from the date of the policy in the payment of the 2d annual premium and so on thereafter.

All its policies are nonforfeitable, made so by stringent enactments of the Legislature of the State of Massachusetts. Among its losses for 1869, several policies were paid under the operation of the famous "Massachusetts Law." The holders of these policies had failed to keep up their premiums, and the insurance would have been void under the laws of any other State.

Further information given and Insurance taken by WM. KING, Agent for the Company, New Oxford, Pa. aug.19,3t.

THE LATEST FASHIONABLE BEVERAGE.—A furnishing store in this City advertises a new style of cravat as "the latest fashion for the throat." This may be the latest style for the outside of that organ, but a fashion for the inside has just come up which is twice as pouplar. Somebody has found out that Schiedam Schnapps improve soda water, and everybody acquiesces in the arrangement. Although somewhat conservative by nature, we are not opposed to progress, and conceiving it our solemn duty, as a public journalist, to ascertain whether Schnapps Soda Water was a proper thing to recommend to our subscribers, we tried it. The result may be stated in a few words. The mixture is good to take, and as our stomach is like stomachs in general it is congenial to that part of the human organization. Finally, and to conclude, "it touches the right spot."—Sunday Courier. 1t

THE WARM WEATHER being upon us, those wishing to refresh themselves will do well to call upon E. H. MINNIGH on Chambersburg street and try the celebrated Cream Soda, which cannot be surpassed as a refreshing and healthy beverage. He also has constantly on hand the best Ice Cream, in small or large quantities to suit all. Pic-nics and Parties furnished at reduce prices. Give us a call and see for yourselves. july8-9t

ALWAYS AHEAD.—Capt. NORRIS is determined not to be outdone by rivals, and hence has been brushing up his "Head-Quarters," on the corner of the Diamond and Chambersburg street, (Arnold's corner,) where he has on hand the largest and best assortment of Ready-made Clothing of all kinds, for Spring and Summer use, ever opened in Gettysburg, and which he is offering at astonishingly low figures. His stock of Straw Hats embraces all styles, qualities, and prices. ap22-tf

For sale by J. W. Cress, Manufacturer's Agent, Gettysburg. sep10-tf

SAVE MONEY.—Pending the agitation of the Funding Bill, which will evidently depreciate Government Bonds, persons would do well by reading the advertisement of the "Gettysburg National Bank," in another column, and exchange their Government Bonds and realize a handsome profit thereby, and obtain an investment as safe and profitable. tf

A CHANCE FOR BARGAINS.—Messrs. Cobean & Cunningham having determined to close out their stock of Ready-made Clothing, are now selling all kinds of Coats, Pants, Vest, &c, at largely reduced prices—many of them less than cost. Now is the time to secure Bargains. The goods are all first-class and will positively be sold without regard to cost. aug.12.tf.

☞ We call attention to the advertisement of the New York Observer in another column. It is sent free on trial to all applicants one month.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A good second-hand Falling and Shifting-top Buggy. Enquire at this office. tf

IT cost two dollars a head under Buchanan to run the government. Under Grant it cost but $1 64. Another evidence of the failure of Grant's administration. He was no such a royal spend-thrift as his Democratic predecessors have been.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

FRANKLIN.—Daniel Baker has purchased the farm of Isaac Fox, near Waynesboro', containing 156 acres, for $17,472.—On Saturday night a three year old horse was stolen from the premises of Judge Ferguson, near Dry Run.

FREDERICK.—Dr. L. M. Schaeffer, druggist, of Frederick, was stricken down with apoplexy in his store on Thursday afternoon, and died next day.—The new census gives Frederick city a population of 8,530.—The "Alpine" and "Enterprise" Base Ball clubs of Emmittsburg played a match game last week, the latter scoring 71 runs to 55 for their opponents.—James Moore, a soldier of the War of 1812, died on the 25th ult., in Urbana district, aged 88 years.

WASHINGTON.—Wm. McCardle aged 80 years, one of the Baltimore defenders in 1814, died at Hagerstown on the 24th ult.

YORK.—Samuel Small, of York, has contributed $30,000 to the Presbyterian Memorial Fund.

SINCE the breaking out of the great European war we have heard very little about the status of the Cuban rebellion, but it is very clear from the telegraphic correspondence of De Rodas with the Spanish government, asking a large number of fresh troops to cover his losses, that the insurrectionists still present a formidable front, and have no intention of giving up the contest.

Sale of the Gettysburg Railroad.

IN the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania for the Eastern District, in Equity.

GEORGE SWOPE et al
vs.
THE GETTYSBURG RAILROAD COMPANY et al.

Whereas, The Gettysburg Railroad Company, by mortgage, dated May 23, 1857, and duly recorded, did grant and assign unto GEORGE SWOPE, his successors and assigns, the railroad of said Company from its eastern terminus in the town of Hanover, in the county of York, through the town of New Oxford, and the borough of Gettysburg, and west-ward near the town of Waynesburg, in the county of Franklin, to the further western terminus at the line of the State of Maryland, at or near the town of Middleburg, in the county of Franklin, State of Pennsylvania, with all the corporate franchises and appurtenances of said Gettysburg Railroad Company, together with the locomotive engines and cars, lands and tenements, tolls, revenues, rights and privileges, whatsoever thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, to have and to hold the said railroad and receive and take all and singular the estate and premises, hereditaments and appurtenances thereby granted or intended to be, with the lomotives, &c., unto the said GEORGE SWOPE and his successors in the trust, nevertheless for the benefit of the holders of the bonds of the Company, to the amount of $200,000.

And whereas, by a decree entered by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in the above entitled case, it was declared that said mortgage was a first lien upon the railroad, tolls, franchises, property, income, estates, and premises therein mentioned, and it was ordered that, on default being made by the Gettysburg Railroad Company, in the payment of the bonds with coupons attached, within the period fixed by the said decree, the railroad property, estates, premises, appurtenances, and franchises conveyed by the said mortgage, should be exposed to sale by public vendue, or outcry, as one entire lot, in the city of Philadelphia, by the said GEORGE SWOPE, to whom all needful authority for that purpose was thereby given upon the terms and conditions therein mentioned and hereinafter set forth.—And whereas, default has been made by the Gettysburg Railroad Company in the payment as aforesaid. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that, under and by virtue of said decree, GEORGE SWOPE, therein named, will, on THURSDAY, the 13th day of October, A. D. 1870, at 12 o'clock, expose to public sale, by public vendue or outcry, the whole of the railroad, together with the lands, rights of way, bridges, culverts, trestlework, machinery, depots, grounds, and buildings situate thereon, and also all the tolls, issues, income, profits, rights, privileges, and franchises, and also, all the cars, engines, locomotives, tenders, or other things used in the business or management of said railroad and its appurtenances, at the Merchants' Exchange in the city of Philadelphia.

The railway above described is situated in the counties of Adams and York, Pennsylvania, and begins at the town of Hanover, in York county, and extends to Gettysburg, in the county of Adams, a distance of sixteen and half miles.

TERMS OF SALE.

The property will be struck off to the highest and best bidder upon his signing the conditions of sale. Ten thousand dollars to be paid in cash, and the balance in thirty days thereafter.

When the purchase money shall have been paid, and the sale confirmed by the Court, the said GEORGE SWOPE will execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers, sufficient deed or deeds conveying the premises unto him or them in fee simple.

ROSADALIS

THE GREAT AMERICAN HEALTH RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your ROSADALIS as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. M'Fadden, Murfreesboro', Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The Society invites the exhibition of any and everything that may be useful or convenient in the practice of Agriculture or Horticulture, or be the product of either; all articles and implements of convenience or use in the domestic or social life, or of all the products of art and skill, and for all such things of merit although not enumerated in the foregoing list, premiums or diplomas may be awarded.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

All Articles and Animals for Exhibition must be properly entered at the Business office. The Grounds and Buildings will be opened on Monday the 26th of September, to receive them; and trusty persons employed by the Society will assign them places and guard the grounds. Articles shipped beforehand will be properly cared for.

No entry for competition will be made after Tuesday; nor can anything entered be removed from the grounds till the close of the Fair, without permission of the President.

The Judges are requested to present themselves at the Business Office, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday, and to report their awards to the Secretary before 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday.

Articles and animals can only be entered to compete in one class, and no one can have two premiums awarded to it.

During the examination of horses, no person excepting those having charge of the stock, judges and officers attending to their duties, will, under any pretence or excuse, be admitted within the ring.

Hay, straw and water will be supplied free of charge, for all animals entered for premiums; and grain will be provided at the lowest cost price, for those who desire to purchase.

All articles and animals entered for exhibition free of charge.

All awarded premiums uncalled for, for thirty days after the close of the Fair, shall be deemed donated to the Society.

Premiums shall not be awarded when the animal or article is deemed unworthy.

All articles must be marked with cards, which will be furnished by the Secretary, designating class and number; and these cards must not be removed until after the Awarding Committees have finished their examinations.

The Executive Committee will take every possible precaution for the safe keeping of all articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangements, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. They desire exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals or articles, and at the close of the Fair attend to their removal.

No animal or article shall be taken out of the Fair Grounds without the leave of the President.

Exhibitors are expected to obey the Marshals promptly in producing their stock, when instructed to do so; and any person proving refractory will be ruled out from competing.

No animal or article will be assigned a place on the grounds until the entries are made, as the regulations of the Society require.

Persons renting refreshment booths will not be permitted to sell intoxicating drinks.

Any person found intoxicated upon the Fair Grounds, or acting in a disorderly manner, shall be immediately ejected from the grounds.

A prompt and severe example will be made of any fraudulent use of Admission Tickets.

Any person attempting to interfere with the judges, in their adjudications, will be promptly excluded from competition.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of the entry, or any other important matter, which the committee feel incompetent to decide, they may at once report the same to the President.

PATENT ELASTIC CORK

HORSE COLLARS.

THE undersigned has for sale these CELEBRATED COLLARS, manufactured by Haner & Berry, Philadelphia, which are now used by all the City Passenger Railroad Companies for the protection of their stock. They are lighter in weight, absorb no moisture, and do not heat. The Cork with which they are stuffed being very elastic, the Collar adjusts to the shape of the animal, and consequently does not chafe. Farmers, try them. Also,

DODGE'S PATENT REAPER AND MOWER

AND SELF RAKER.

THIS machine has met with the most complete success. In every section where it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over those machines which have heretofore ranked as first-class. It is a perfect Self-Raker and a superior Mower.
A careful examination will convince any one of its superior merits over all others, in simplicity, strength and durability. As a Self-raking Reaper it has no equal to our knowledge.
The Dodge rake is attached to no other machine in the United States, except to this machine.—Built by the DODGE & STEVENSON Manufacturing Co., Auburn, New York.

READ THE NOTICE OF THE COMPANY TO OUR AGENTS:

Having been informed that certain manufacturers in Ohio and elsewhere are building Reapers, with DODGE'S SELF-RAKE attached, we ask you to furnish us the names of all persons vending or purchasing such machines, as we have never licensed any person or persons to manufacture said SELF-RAKE, or any part thereof, and will prosecute to the full extent of the law all persons manufacturing, selling or using said Self-rake except of our own manufacture.
JOHN A. DODGE, President.
We have that confidence in this machine that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test it with any other machine they may wish, and keep the one that gives the most satisfaction.
Farmers wanting Droppers attached can be accommodated.
For the benefit of those wanting machines we should refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold, viz:

HOW TO CURE

CONSUMPTION!!

THE PHILOSOPHY OF DR. SCHENCK'S GREAT MEDICINES.—Will people never learn to know that a diseased liver and stomach necessarily disease the entire system? The plainest Principles of common sense teach this, and yet there are hundreds who ridicule the idea, and continue in the course which almost inevitably brings them prematurely to the grave. Living as the majority of the people do, at complete variance with the laws of nature, it must be apparent to all that, sooner or later, nature will revenge herself. Hence we find that persons who indulge to excess in the use of very rich or indigestible food or intoxicating drinks, invariably pay a heavy penalty in the end. The stomach becomes disordered and refuses to act; the liver fails to perform its functions, dyspepsia and its attendant evils follow, and still the suffering individuals persist in clinging to the thoroughly exploded ideas of the past. Dr. Schenck's medicines are recommended to all such. They bring sure and certain relief wherever they are used as directed, and all that is necessary to establish their reputation with every ailing man or woman in the land is a fair and impartial trial of them. Let those who are skeptical on this point, and who have permitted interested persons to prejudice them against these now celebrated remedies for Consumption, discard their prejudices, and be governed by the principles of reason and common sense. If the system is disordered depend upon it, in nine cases out of ten the seat of disorder will be found in the stomach and liver. To cleanse and invigorate the stomach and to stimulate the liver to healthy action, use

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—The daily increasing demand for these pills is the best evidence of their value. Thousands upon thousands of boxes are sold daily. Why? Simply because they act promptly and efficiently. Invalids who may not find it convenient to call on Dr. Schenck in person are informed that full and complete directions for use accompany each package of the MANDRAKE PILLS, PULMONIC SYRUP AND SEAWEED TONIC.—These medicines will cure consumption unless the lungs are so far gone that the patient is entirely beyond the reach of medical relief.

It may be asked by those who are not familiar with the virtues of these great remedies, "How do Dr. Schenck's medicines effect their wonderful cures of consumption?"

The answer is a simple one. They begin their work of restoration by bringing the stomach, liver and bowels into an active healthy condition. It is food that cures this formidable disease.—SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS act on the liver and stomach, promoting healthy secretion, and removing the bile and slime which have resulted from the inactive or torpid condition of these organs, and of the system generally. This sluggish state of the body, and the consequent accumulation of the unhealthy substances named prevent the proper digestion of food, and, as a natural consequence creates disease, which results in prostration and finally in death.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP and SEAWEED TONIC, when taken regularly, mingle with the food, aid the digestive organs, make good rich blood, and as a natural consequence, give flesh and strength to the patient. Let the faculty say what it may, this is the only true cure for consumption. Experience has proved it beyond the shadow of a doubt, and thousands are to-day alive and well who a few years since were regarded as hopeless cases, but who were induced to try Dr. Schenck's remedies, and were restored to permanent health by their use.

One of the first steps the physician should take with a consumptive patient is to invigorate the system. Now how is this to be done? Certainly not by giving medicines that exhaust and enervate—medicines that impair instead of improve the functions of the digestive organs. Dr. Schenck's medicines cleanse the stomach and bowels of all substances which are calculated to irritate or weaken them. They create an appetite—promote healthful digestion—make good blood, and, as a consequence, they invigorate and strengthen the entire system, and more especially those parts which are diseased. If this cannot be done, then the case must be regarded as a hopeless one.

If the physician finds it impossible to make a PATIENT FEEL HUNGRY, if the diseased person cannot partake of good nourishing food and properly digest it, it is impossible that he can gain flesh and strength; and it is equally impossible to bring a patient to this condition so long as the liver is burdened with diseased bile, and the stomach laden with unhealthy slime.

Almost the first request made to the physician by a consumptive patient is that he will prescribe medicines that will remove or allay the cough, night sweats and chills, which are the sure attendants on consumption. But this should not be done, as the cough is only an effort of nature to relieve itself, and the night sweats and chills are caused by the diseased lungs. The remedies ordinarily prescribed do more harm than good.—They impair the functions of the stomach, impede healthy digestion, and aggravate rather than cure the disease.

There is, after all, nothing like facts with which to substantiate a position, and it is upon facts that Dr. Schenck relies. Nearly all who have taken his medicines in accordance with his directions have not only been cured of consumption, but, from the fact that these medicines act with wonderful power upon the digestive organs, patients thus cured speedily gain flesh. Cleansing the system of all impurities, they lay the foundation for a solid, substantial structure. Restoring these organs to health, they create an appetite. The food is properly assimilated; the quantity of blood is not only increased, but is made rich and strong and in the face of such a condition of the system all disease must be banished.

Full directions accompany each of the medicines, so that it is not absolutely necessary that patients should see Dr. Schenck personally, unless they desire to have their lungs examined. For this purpose he is at his principle office, No. 15 North Sixth St., corner of Commerce, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 6 A. M., until 1 P. M.

Advice is given without charge, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each, $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. [June 10, 1870–1y

MANHOOD

IN THE YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scene of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain: the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sudden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of Chemistry for the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is a testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.—Price $1.25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.
